How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder,
Consider all the works thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my saviour God to thee,
How great thou art, How great thou art,
Then sings my soul, my saviour God to thee,
How great thou art, How great thou art.

When through the woods and forest glades I wander,
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees,
When I look down from the lofty mountain grandeur,
And hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze.

And when I think that God, his son not sparing,
Sent him to die, I scarce can take it in,
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin.

When Christ shall come with a shout of acclamation
And take me home
What joy shall fill my heart
And I shall bow in humble adoration
And there proclaim "My God how great thou art!"

The Return

When timbers creak and billies speak
Among the glowing logs
Then shades stroll in of Len and Joe
From out the seeping fogs
With yarns of tracks and other shacks
Of rivers, creeks and bogs
Of bluffs and crags and boars and stags
Of horses, men and dogs
Of stalkers old, and goats and gold
And dudes in dainty togs
When billies sing and shadows cling
Among the glowing logs

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven
Hallowed be thy name
Thy kingdom come
Thy will be done
In Earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive them
That trespass against us
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory
For ever and ever. Amen
