SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr Orton, commercial agent for the New Zealand Railways, was a visitor to Te Awamutu yesterday.

Mrs H. E. Philip, of Fraser Street, and her son returned to Te Awamutu on Tuesday after spending a fortnight's holiday at Taurānga.

Miss McEwen, of Auckland, is spending a holiday in Te Awamutu as the guest of Mrs E. Bryant, of Mahoe Street.

Mr J. J. McLeod, for some years manager of the Union Bank of Australia at Otorohanga, but more recently manager of the Te Kuiti branch, has been promoted to the managership of the Blenheim branch.

The engagement is announced of Mona Inez, second daughter of Mr and Mrs P. C. Tarrant, of Pio Pio, and Austin Charles, elder son of Mr and Mrs C. P. Tibbets, of Auckland.

Mr Chas. Cox, of Te Rahu Road, who was for some time receiving treatment at Rotorua Sanatorium for an injury sustained as the result of a fall from his horse and who has been an out-patient for the past two months or so, returned to Rotorua yesterday for further treatment, which it is hoped will effect a complete cure.

Mr John C. Allan, postmaster at Cambridge, will retire at the end of this month after 37½ years' service, nine of which have been served at Cambridge. He will be succeeded by Mr W. Drake, of Newton.

One of the visitors who received a very warm welcome at the opening of the Te Awamutu Bowling Club's season yesterday afternoon was Mr J. H. Saunderson, of Otorohanga, who for years was a prominent and popular player, but who has been incapacitated for over four years as a result of a recurrence of Great War injuries. "Saundy" was greeted by many old friends and well-wishers.
