Dear Jack
A Glasgow
scene, we called in here, but did not get any leave
came on by train
to Sling, on our way we seen some
very nice farms,
also good scenery.
We are kept going
here different to it everything on the double.

Lionel,

I thought that the postcards numbered 1, 3 and 5 would interest you as they were sent by your Dad to my Dad.

1. Milson's Point, Sydney, N.S.W.
2. A barefoot boy, whistling while walking a country road - a fishing trip I think.
3. Fort MacQuarie + H.M.S. Powerful, Sydney N.S.W.
4. A small child.
Sent to you for the address
5. Kelvingrove Park and University, Glasgow.

POST

Well I will say goodbye now Jack. I remember me to Mum & Vera & tell Clarrie I received his letter alright. George

Dear Jack.
Just a few lines
to let you know I have not forgotten you & hope you are getting along bright & keeping a good boy. Well I can't say whether I will be home for home or not, but anyway I will be glad to see you all again. I believe you are getting some cold weather over there. I hear today they have had a snow in N. H.
