DECLARATION UNDER SECTION 43 (1A)
OF THE ESTATE AND GIFT DUTIES
ACT 1968

DAVENPORTS
SOLICITORS
HENDERSON

I ROBERT PETER WEBBER of Glen Eden, Solicitor, solemnly and sincerely declare that:

1. I am a principal in the firm of Davenports, Solicitors of the estate of JOAN URSULA CONNELLY who died on 21st December 1989

2. OF my knowledge and as a result of full enquires made by me I am satisfied that the final balance in the estate as defined by the Estate and Gift Duties Act 1968 being the total value of the property in the dutiable estate of the deceased, reduced by the sum of the allowable debts and any matrimonial home allowance and any charitable allowance, does not exceed the amount of $300,000.00.

3. ACCORDINGLY the current exemption granted to the Registrar by the Commissioner of Inland Revenue by authority of Section 43 (1A) of the Estate and Gift Duties Act 1968 applies to the administration of this estate.

4. THE administration, being of the kind described in the notice of exemption by the Commissioner, is for delivery direct to the solicitors of the estate.

AND I MAKE this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the Oaths and Declarations Act 1957.
